Park Court Chambers Chambers of Robert Smith QC

We are pleased to announce that three new members have joined Park Court Chambers:

■ Nicholas Mason

Formerly of Nicholas Street Chambers, Nicholas Mason specialises in civil and commercial litigation, in particular professional negligence and personal injury. He also has a significant practice in criminal law, including fraud, excise offences, sexual offences and offences involving technical and medical issues such as manslaughter, death by dangerous driving and health and safety.

He also undertakes Judicial Review, landlord and tenant, planning and licensing cases.

■ Gul Nawaz Hussain

Formerly of Paradise Chambers, Sheffield, Gul Nawaz Hussain specialises in high profile, complex and serious criminal work. He is instructed in a number of terrorist cases and represented the alleged "fifth bomber" from the 21/7 attacks. Following a hung jury, he will again represent him at the forthcoming retrial.

Since 2003, he has consistently been ranked as a leading junior by Chambers & Partners and is also recommended in the 2008 edition of the Legal 500. He has satisfied both the 'essential' and 'desirable' requirements for inclusion on the VHCC specialist advocates panel.

■ Adam Birkby

Adam has recently accepted a tenancy in Chambers after successful completion of his pupillage at Park Court Chambers. He is currently conducting the following types of cases:

Crime: Adam has dealt with a large number of cases in the Magistrates Court for both prosecution and defence. He is regularly instructed in privately-funded defence cases involving road traffic offences.

Civil: Adam is also regularly instructed in small claims mainly involving road traffic accidents but also in commercial cases. He also deals with possession and banking cases and a large number of infant settlements.
