

Catherine Knowles

Called: Middle Temple, 2004
Education: 1999-2002 BA(Hons) Jurisprudence – St Edmund Hall, Oxford
2003-2004 Bar Vocational Course – Inns of Court School of Law

Areas of Practice:

Contract & Commercial

Regularly instructed to draft pleadings, advise and represent parties at all stages of litigation in respect of a wide range of contractual disputes (including actions involving guarantees and indemnities).

Professional Negligence

Solicitors' negligence - particular interest in cases involving personal injury and employment matters.

Land, Trusts, Wills and Probate

Land disputes, particularly those involving disputed boundaries.

Insolvency & Commercial Recovery

Acts on behalf of debtors and creditors in relation to bankruptcy (petitions and applications to annul) and winding up (petitions and applications for injunctive relief).

Additional Information

Catherine is also a member of the Employment Team and has a particular interest in Commercial cases involving the employment relationship, having represented parties at interlocutory hearings in the High Court relating to alleged breaches of the employee's duty of fidelity and express restrictive covenants.

Specialist Associations: Employment Law Bar Association, Employment Lawyers Association, Personal Injury Bar Association, Bar Pro Bono Unit and Liberty.

Scholarships: Benefactors Scholar of the Middle Temple, 2003-04, Certificate of Honour for Bar Vocational Course results, 2004.

Seminars: Catherine is happy to provide seminars in her area of practice upon request. Recent seminar topics (2008) include 'Restrictive Covenants: Trade Secrets and Confidentiality – What Can You Protect?'

Clerk(s):

Moira Paxton: 0113 203 5502 (moira@parkcourtchambers.co.uk)

Janet Jackson: 0113 203 5503 (janet@parkcourtchambers.co.uk)