Personal Injury Practice

Catherine receives instructions on behalf of claimants and defendants. Her practice covers all aspects of personal injury work, including:

- Road Traffic cases (including cases involving credit hire agreements; a lack of co-operation on the part of an insured driver; issues of low velocity impact; and suspect accidents)
- Highways Claims
- Employers' Liability
- Occupiers' Liability
- CICA Cases.

In court Catherine represents parties at all stages from pre action through to trial. Catherine has been instructed to act in Appeals to the County and High Court, including drafting / responding to grounds of appeal in cases where she did not represent the client at first instance.

Catherine also has a busy paperwork practice and regularly drafts pleadings and advises on liability and quantum.
